EXHIBIT 2

Lori Lynne Forbes, the applicant, will terminate any employment or business interests and move to Waimea, Hawaii before the station commences broadcasting and will serve as the station manager on a full-time basis of at least forty hours per week. She will supervise all aspects of station operations, including programming, sales, business affairs, engineering, and employment, including implementation of the station's equal employment opportunity program.

The station will be enhanced by Ms. Forbes' female status and her broadcast experience. She has since 1978 held a restricted radiotelephone operator's permit. From January 1978 to June of 1978 she worked in the traffic department of Station KUAD and from July 1978 to July 1979 she worked as a salesperson for that station.
